

Stetson Creek and Juneau Lake fires

FIRE UPDATE: June 23, 2015, 0900

Fire Information

Email: stetsoncreekfire2015@gmail.com

Phone: 907-595-1244

Information hours: 8:00 am - 8:00 pm

Incident Management

Oregon Interagency Incident Management Team 4, Type 2 IMT

Incident Commander: Brian Goff

Incident Command Post

Cooper Landing School, Bean Creek Road, Cooper Landing, AK

Stetson Creek Fire

Acres: 212

Containment: 55%

Today's objectives: Crews will split into two divisions to work along Cooper Creek and continue mop-up around the existing containment line to the north and south, using water and saw lines. Mop-up is expected to take several days.

InciWeb <http://inciweb.nwcg.gov/incident/4306/#>

Juneau Lake Fire

Acres: 573

Containment: 35%

Today's objectives: Direct attack saw line and hose lay along West and South flanks and tie into natural breaks on North and East flanks. The crew will continue to build line. Mop up will also continue today and over the next several days. One injury occurred. A firefighter sustained minor injuries with a bear.

InciWeb <http://inciweb.nwcg.gov/incident/4307/#>

Resources

111 personnel today. Assigned to the two fires are three 20-person crews, a 14-person module, 3 helicopter support, 15 team and 24 miscellaneous and overhead staff, and one Type 3 helicopter.

Injuries

One firefighter sustained minor injuries due to an encounter with a bear.

Weather

Tuesday, June 23: Mostly cloudy in the morning then becoming mostly sunny. High around 75, minimum Rh 35%, variable winds of 3-8 from the southwest. Moist marine air is slowly diminishing.

Closures

A burning closure are in effect for all of the Kenai Peninsula. No open burning or campfires are allowed.